

MEMBER IDENTITY INFORMATION & VERIFICATION CARD

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

What this means to you: When you open an account, we ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

CREDIT UNION TIPS

- Members seeking to open a new account must have their identity verified. An account is a formal banking or business relationship established to provide services, dealings or financial transactions.

Examples of products or services that constitute an account are as follows:	An account does NOT include:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Opening share, saving, certificate, IRA, or other asset accounts</li><li>• Opening a credit account or other extensions of credit</li><li>• Safety Deposit boxes or other safekeeping services</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Check cashing</li><li>• Wire transfer</li><li>• Check or money order sales</li></ul>
- If a member does not have a residential or business street address collect the APO (Army Post Office) or FPO (Fleet Post Office) or street address of next of kin or other contact.
- If a foreign business does not have a TIN, you must obtain an alternative government issued document certifying the existence of the business or enterprise.
- If a member does not have a TIN but has applied for a TIN, you may open the account by confirming the application was filed and the member gets the TIN within a reasonable time after the account is opened.
- When the identity of a business or organization cannot be verified your credit union's Customer Identity Program must contain procedures for obtaining and verifying identity information of individuals with authority or control over the account, including signatories.
- Credit unions must determine whether the member appears on any list of known or suspected terrorists or terrorist organizations. The lists are issued by a federal government agency and designated by the Treasury Department as a list subject to CIP comparison requirements.
